Zoning Enforcement Officer Report

Eric Knapp, ZEO
January 11, 2016

Legal Actions:

22 High Street: Unsafe property and structure. Blight Order issued. Legal Counsel or Town is attempting to remedy the issue. Court granted motion for default for failure to plead on October 23, 2012. Court Order dated December 17, 2012 – compliance by January 31, 2013. Town to begin cleaning up property as of February 4, 2013. Town is scheduled to begin demolition on September 12, 2013. Notice to owner sent 9/5/2013. Town cleaned up exterior of the property and removed decayed fencing, debris and dangerous trees. Working with bank for further cleanup. Town is working owner's family members for a solution. Work has begun on the structures located on the property, including reroofing, new windows and yard work.

66 River Road: Conducting a recycling facility for composting, mulch manufacturing, importing raw materials for reduction to a marketable item (top soil, fire wood, compost); the keeping of livestock without a permit and operating a far without a permit; failure to keep livestock in an enclosure that meets the required setbacks for the front and side yards. The decision came out July 30, 2015. The court issued an injunction again Mr. Cashman ordering him to completely remove all non-permitted structures and uses. It also ordered monetary penalties of $20,860, with additional penalty of $150/day for each day beyond September 15, 2015 if the injunction is violated. Mr. Cashman has filed his appeal with the Appellate Court. A judgment of foreclosure by sale has now entered against this property. The sales date had been scheduled for February 20, 2016. With Mr. Cashman now having filed bankruptcy, the bank will need to seek a relief from bankruptcy stay and then file for a new sale date. Once the house is sold, the Cashmans will lose standing to proceed with their appellate case and it would be dismissed upon motion by my counsel. The Appellate case is also stayed at the moment, due to bankruptcy. Attorney Rutkowska is working to get it moving forward again.
